

What is dull skin?

Sun, environmental pollution and the natural ageing process all make their mark on skin, leaving it dull, uneven and etched with fine lines. The change of season is the perfect time to give skin a rejuvenating boost.

The specific blend of alpha and beta hydroxy acids in the Joyce Blok Alpha-Beta range have been specially selected to renew, hydrate and restore for more radiant skin. The range contains citric, malic, lactic and salicylic acids to exfoliate and enhance skin hydration.

How do I use the Joyce Blok antioxidant serums?.....

Apply 4-5 drops of serum, using clean fingertips, to clean dry skin and gently massage into face, neck and décolletage. Wait a few minutes for the serum to be absorbed into your skin. These serums are not moisturisers so follow with your Joyce Blok moisturiser and sunscreen in the morning.

Vitamin C is known to neutralise free radicals, thus defending against environmental ageing. It is also a key component in collagen production and has a brightening effect on the complexion. With Joyce Blok Natural Skin Care's range of antioxidant serums, every skin type can benefit from Vitamin C, all year around.

We have some exciting things happening in the clinic over the next couple of months. Remember to keep checking our What's Hot page on our website (www.beverleyhills.co.nz) and/or become a fan of our Facebook page or follow us on Twitter. Facebook and Twitter can be accessed through our website. Watch this space!

The clinic will be closed for Easter at 8.00pm on Thursday 1st April and reopening at 9.00am on Tuesday 6th April.

Please find attached 2 great specials from Dr Ellen Selkon / Juno Clinic.

Refer a friend for treatment with Dr Ellen Selkon before 30th April 2010 and go into the draw to win a make over with dermal fillers to the value of $1500

The wife of wealthy soccer player David Beckham loves a tan. "If you can't afford the real thing, go to St Tropez in a can," she has said. (From instyle.com) We tend to agree!

We hope that you are well and look forward to seeing you soon

Take care
